

THE RAILWAY CHILDREN

AUDITION SPEECHES COOK/MRS VINEY

COOK

Ordinary children? As ordinary as you can be with a house full of servants. They had everything, spoiled rotten. Everything. Lovely cloths, but did they look after them? That nursery was big enough for a family. Full of toys, half of them broken. They were nice enough kids but they didn't know they were born.

MRS VINEY

In the morning, the sun came out and it all looked much, much nicer. They found the food of course, in a room they hadn't seen the night before which Mrs Viney had left for them after all. Morning, I'm Mrs Viney. Sorry I had to leave last night. It was so late. See you found the food. Shall we unpack? Some say I'm a treasure. A treasure? I'm not sure I've got the chest for it. X marks the spot. Come on, let's get stuck in.
